HULL IS NAMED TO HEAD
BOARD OF CONSULTANTS

Associated Press

President Eisenhower yesterday designated retired Army General John E. Hull as Chairman of The President's Board of Consultants on Foreign Intelligence Activities. He is now a Member of the Board, which advises the President on operation of the Nation's intelligence systems.

General Hull, who lives here, will replace as Chairman James R. Killian Jr., Special Assistant to the President for Science and Technology. Killian will remain a Member of the Board. He had asked to be relieved of the chairmanship because of his science duties.
